New Delhi, Delhi, 11th August, 2015 -- IACM, a Delhi based major training company enthusiastically involved in imparting various employability trainings to the unemployed youth through various Central and State Government Schemes under Public Private Partnership (PPP) model besides its own employability vocational skilling programs, launched training under Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana scheme.

This would be the flagship scheme for skill training of youth to be implemented by the new Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship through National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC). The scheme would cover around 24 lakh persons. Skill training would be done based on National Skill Qualification Framework (NSQF) and industry led standards. Under the scheme, a monetary reward is given to the trainees on assessment and certification by third party assessment bodies.

The union cabinet meet which was chaired by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi gave the approval for the Rs.1,500 crore outlay for PMKVY in a meeting held here.

According to the union cabinet, PMKVY will be the flagship scheme for skill training of youth to be implemented by the new ministry of skill development and entrepreneurship through the national skill development corporation (NSDC).

"The scheme will cover 24 lakh persons. Skill training would be done based on the national skill qualification framework (NSQF) and industry led standards," the union cabinet said in a statement.

Currently IACM is affiliated with Retailers Association's Skill Council of India – RASCI, Electronics Sector Skills Council of India- ESSCI, Skill Council for Mining Sector – SCMS and Beauty & Wellness Sector Skill Council- BWSSC and affiliation is under process with other SSCs.

"With the experience of working under STAR Scheme last year whereas we mobilized 30000+ students across India, IACM is better equipped and trained to handle the outcome based training under PMKVY. We are very much focused on quality training and providing adequate placement opportunities to candidates enrolled with us" said Ravinder Goyal, Director IACM SmartLearn Ltd.

"With the experience of providing training in vocational skills since last 17+ years, we are among very few companies, who have already developed the courseware aligned to the QPs, which is the key towards delivering quality training." opined Jaideep Kalia, CEO IACM SmartLearn Ltd.
